

COMPUTEX TAIPEI & InnoVEX 2020 Postponed Till September Delivering 5G & Netcom, Smart Solutions, Gaming and Startups

The pandemic novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) have already infected more than 300,000 people over 167 countries at time of notification. This has severely impacted economic, trade, transportation, tourism and many industries. The Director General Mr. Enoch Du of the Taipei Computer Association (TCA) and Secretary General Mr. Walter Yeh of the Taiwan External Trade Development Council (TAITRA) as the co-organizers of COMPUTEX TAIPEI, jointly announces the postponement of original scheduled COMPUTEX TAIPEI during 2nd ~ 6th June till 28th ~ 30th September 2020 at Taipei Nangang Exhibition Center, Hall 2. The decision was made under the priority of the health and safety of all participants, as well as the exhibition outcome.

In order to continuously provide services to exhibitors and buyers whilst placing the health and safety as priority, the COMPUTEX 2020 Special Edition in September will present key topics such as 5G and Netcom, Smart Solutions, Gaming and Startups (InnoVEX). According to McKinsey's latest epidemic report, the coronavirus outbreak in China and East Asia will be contained at the beginning of the second quarter, and the epidemic may also be reduced in Europe and the United States by June. The organizers of COMPUTEX TAIPEI will strengthen efforts to invite international buyers to visit Taiwan and attend COMPUTEX TAIPEI.

Exhibitors who continue to support COMPUTEX TAIPEI, organizers have established the COMPUTEX online exhibition, inviting international buyers to participate in video procurement conferences, and invite domestic and overseas well-known companies to organize online product launching conferences. Meanwhile, the organizer will invite iconic domestic and international ICT corporations to share smart technology applications and the latest trends of 5G, AI, IoT, etc. in an online format.
